In this edition of SPOTM: Sydney Sweeney's photoshoot about being an industry slave, Selena Gomez's photoshoot about being an MK slave, John Cena keeps being publically humiliated. Also: The satanic elite loves to be blasphemous during Easter celebrations.

Sydney Sweeney rose to stardom by starring in Euphoria – a series laced with all kinds of toxic messages aimed at its teenage viewers. Also, it spends a lot of time depicting high schoolers in extreme sexual situations. Appropriately enough, Sydney Sweeney gets naked in the very first minutes of the series.

Since then, Sweeney has become a massive star, landing roles in movies while being featured in magazine photoshoots. Of course, that also means she must comply with the elite's symbolic agenda. This photoshoot in WhoWhatWear magazine could not be more obvious. Seriously, it's all there.

Sydney uses a glass thing to make a very clear one-eye sign. This picture signals that everything else in the shoot is about her being a puppet of the occult elite—literally.

A giant hand controls Sweeney like a puppet. This is one of the many pictures in the photoshoot alluding to Monarch mind control.

Coincidentally enough, here's the cover of Fritz Springmeier's seminal book about Monarch Programming.

A hand controls a puppet. The images are so similar that it's almost as if the cover inspired Sweeney's photo.

The goal of Monarch Mind Control is to create programmable alter personas. With that being said, let's look at the next picture in Sydney Sweeney photoshoot.

Sydney Sweeney is flanked by mask-like copies of her face. This is a classic way of representing alter personas in mind control.

Here, Sweeney has an eyeball in her mouth. In the movie Neon Demon (one of the most blatant movies about the satanic mindset in the entertainment industry), actresses who eat an eyeball are symbolically chosen by the elite. This reference is appropriate as Sweeney is currently an elite 'it girl'. On the brighter side, the top comments on Instagram are all about calling out thi handlers. HAND-lers.

Selena looks sad while wearing a wristband that says "RISK." Also, the taped-on cotton pad implies that she was injected with something. This is all about her being an MK slave.

Aaron Taylor-Johnson is a British actor who has starred in popular movies such as Kick-Ass, Avengers: Age of Ultron, Tenet, and Bullet Train. In a recent photoshoot with Rolling Stones magazine, he did everything he had to do to remain in the entertainment industry's good graces.

Here, he makes a blatant one-eye sign with a face that says: "I know, this is pathetic."

Here, he mimics devil horns with a face that says, "I know, I sold my soul to be in Hollywood."

Here, he wears the obligatory women's clothing with a face that says: "This is humiliating."

Speaking of humiliation, John Cena is a wrestler who made a transition to the entertainment industry for fame and fortune. But there's a price for it.

Cena is in the "humiliation" stage of his career. His appearing naked in front of his peers was the perfect way of highlighting this fact.

On the poster of his most recent movie, John Cena is dressed like a sexualized schoolgirl. Humiliation and emasculation – that's what's on the agenda for Cena.

As usual, the one-eye sign has been all over the place in the past weeks and it was performed by the biggest stars in the industry. The message: They're doing as they're told. Here's a couple of examples.

Unless you live under a rock, you probably know that Beyonce released a country album. And, of course, all of the media coverage was about her race. Because everything needs to be about race and division. In actuality, the elite is desperate to contaminate the country genre with its agendas and symbols and they're using Beyonce as a trojan horse. To confirm her status as an industry pawn, Beyonce made a blatant one-eye sign in Essence magazine prior to the release of her album.

This is the cover art of Cardi B's single Like What (Freestyle). It's just a big, fat one-eye sign. That's it. That's all she's about.

On March 8th, it was International Women's Day. Guess who Lady Gaga celebrated it with?

A guy in a dress. Yes, she celebrated Women's Day with Dylan Mulvaney, a guy who is famous for no reason except for singlehandedly destroying the Bud Light brand with a disastrous ad campaign. Lady Gaga is so sold out to the elite's agenda that she's willing to insult her fellow women for it.

On March 24, it was Palm Sunday, a holy day in Christianity. This is a mass media headline.

Late Night With the Devil (2023) Via IMDb

Late Night With The Devil takes $666,666 at box office, despite boycotts

The indie horror took the satanic amount on Sunday in the US, despite boycotts, review bombing and harsh criticism from artists over its use of AI-generated artwork

Apparently, the movie Late Night With the Devil generated exactly $666,666 at the box office on Palm Sunday. I'm pretty sure that's a lie – "they" just wanted this headline to exist for blasphemous reasons. The movie is about a TV show unleashing evil in America's livin rooms. That's an appropriate way of describing mass media.

On March 31st, it was Easter, the most solemn holiday in Christianity. It is celebrated by tens of millions of Americans from all origins. March 31st was also Transgender Day of Visibility, a fake, made-up day of indoctrination that is celebrated by about 68 weirdos. Guess who Biden's administration decided to celebrate?

Today, on Transgender Day of Visibility, I have a simple message to all trans Americans:

I see you.

You are made in the image of God, and you're worthy of respect and dignity.

In an incredible twist of irony, Biden (well, the propagandist who handles his social media accounts) wrote that transgender people are “made in the image of God.” Wow. The entire goal of trans people is to turn into the exact opposite of how God made them using drastic surgeries, aggressive hormone treatments, invasive puberty blockers, and numerous other unnatural procedures.

As stated in previous articles, the elite has been insanely trying to promote cannibalism. Also, as stated in previous articles, a significant number of scientific publications have become tools of propaganda. That said, here are some recent headlines from the “scientific” publication New Scientist.

The real question is why aren't we all cannibals?

From Robert Law, Hong Kong, China

Your look at cannibalism mentioned that over the course of history, the practice "has been surprisingly common". In fact, this shouldn't be surprising at all. Cannibalism solves the food shortage problem and is environmentally friendly. So why not?

Our human ancestors often ate each other, and for surprising reasons

In a couple of months, New Scientist published THREE full articles promoting cannibalism – even stating that it “solves the food crisis” and that it is “environmentally friendly.” Yup, the same scientific publications that try to convince us that men can get pregnant are also trying to persuade us to EAT OTHER HUMAN BEINGS. In other words, these publications are now corrupt, compromised, and only suitable for the Cannibalism is the ultimate desecration of our soul and proof that someone has reached the end of evil, God revealed this to me. We will become demons like them if we eat human flesh! The tyrant Biden talks about THEIR god when he said that transgenders are like god. The leftists and the satanists create doubts about the most basic truths because proving that 1 plus 1 equals 2 is difficult, they are fathers of lies. Even if we don't know exactly why something is wrong we still deep down KNOW it. Our sexes are GOOD things, the LGBT should be called sex destroyers, how will we reach happiness if we hate and destroy the human nature? The USA president and his administration are SATANISTS, let that sink in. Keep your guns Americans, they are the best hope of all mankind

I am so glad I learned about self defenses. When I was in the army (mandatory, by law, 14 months) I learned some strong moves for man2man action. Later on, I also took on a determination: That if anybody wanted to attack me, use violence on me, I would go for elimination, in one strike; not for gaining seconds to run away. I am a slender man, not a muscled up big man; one hard kick and I could break. The look in my face, combined with the things I said, the way I composed myself – it all helped when I was confronted. I live, so it really did. Without ever needing to fully go into a physical fight... Just by opposing loudly, determined and prepared by knowledge on how to poke an eye, g

I was very insecure for the first 27 years of my life.
Selfdefense was one of the few things that helped me straighten out my drooping and walk up right, facing what was to come.
Children need to learn it.
You know, bullies and such...of all ages.
I learned it rather late, and encourage it being taught to toddlers already, subtly... It really helps grounding basics, on selfknowledge for example.
”How strong am I”, or ”how slow could my attacker be”, anything?

Selfdefense helps with Preventing (or just coping) some DisAssociations as well, by the way!

Learning to oversee a situation in times of stress — and react — ar

If Biden’s mission was to insult the 63% of Christians in America, then mission accomplished. My family and I celebrate Easter!

Transgender visibility day has been around since 2010. This is the first time it fell on Easter.
